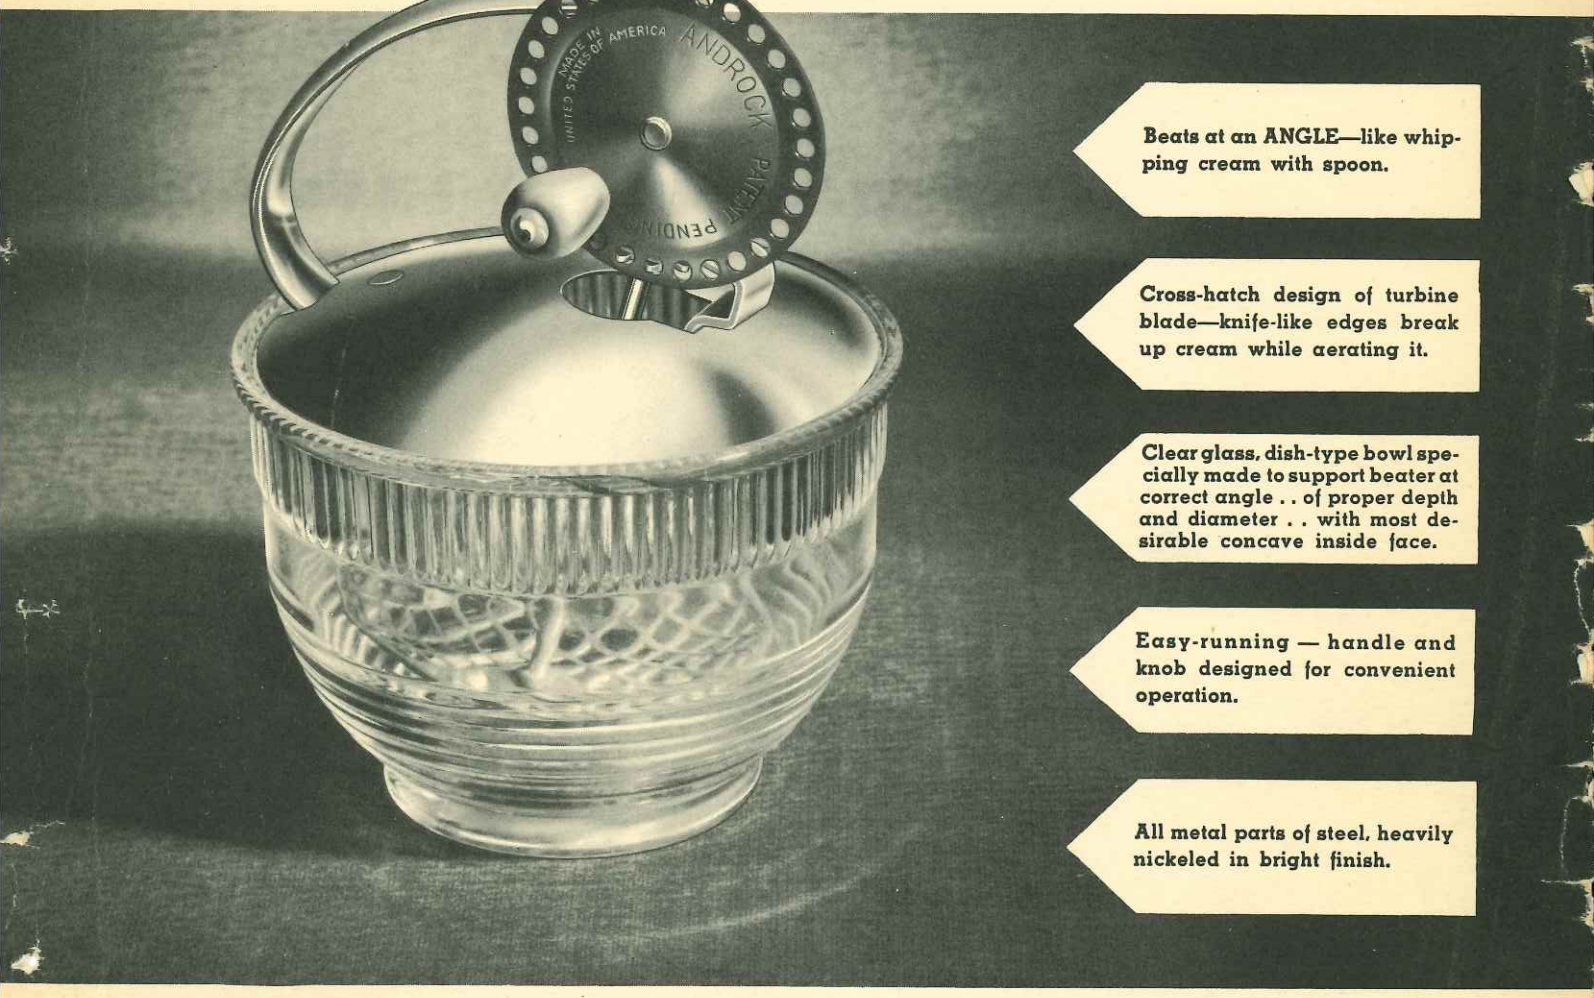
Inside front cover.

Something "NEW" Under the Sun!



Beats at an ANGLE—like whipping cream with spoon.

Cross-hatch design of turbine blade—knife-like edges break up cream while aerating it.

Clear glass, dish-type bowl specially made to support beater at correct angle . . of proper depth and diameter . . with most desirable concave inside face.

Easy-running — handle and knob designed for convenient operation.

All metal parts of steel, heavily nickeled in bright finish.

Here's an entirely new idea in a combined bowl beater — with each part engineered in perfect and balanced relationship to every other for most efficient performance — currently the most sensational development in the kitchenware field.

NEWS and VIEWS

FROM COAST TO COAST IN THE HOUSE FURNISHINGS WORLD

Gaining momentum throughout Retail America is a movement to step-up sales and profits in House Furnishings Departments through the medium of more effective displays. On these pages you may observe the progress made by representative stores in developing better displays. And here are some of the accruing advantages reported by these stores:

EACH SHOPPER

- ★ Is reminded of household utensils she has always needed, but never remembered to buy.
- ★ Is given an opportunity to see new utensils which she did not realize were available.
- ★ Receives a lasting impression that a wide assortment is carried by the given store, an assortment that she will want to "shop" when next in need of similar items.

EACH STORE

- ★ May keep stock orderly, as sales from displays do not disturb the general arrangement.
- ★ Is able to give new sales appeal to items ordinarily hard to display.
- ★ Keeps stock complete, as empty hooks automatically signal need for stock replenishment.
- ★ Increases turnover and profits.

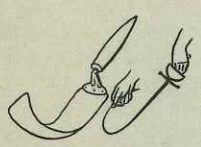
Magic in the Kitchen

THIN AS PAPER! STRONG AS STEEL!



Like Damascus Steel . . .

bends like a rapier and returns to its original shape . . .

yet it's perfectly rigid when lifting.

R . . . Red
G . . Green

Pat. No. 2,064,136

★ TURNER Paper-thin, super-flexible steel blade stays flat, actually flows under pan foods . . . because of exclusive concave shape.

★ SPATULA Hugs the contour of pie tins, mixing bowls, pots and pans . . . scrapes the very last morsel of batter or crusted-on particles of baked or cooked food. A finger of steel that wipes as it scrapes.

★ LIFTER Ingenious heavy steel construction of handle shank forms and controls concave "flexor" action, makes this super-flexible blade super-rigid for lifting ROASTS, LOAFS, PIES, CAKES, etc.

THE Secret IS THE SUPER-FLEXIBLE Concave Blade

INDIVIDUALLY TAGGED

Colorful tag attached to each item tells complete fascinating story to "browsing" shoppers.

★ Amazing flexing action.

★ Keen bias-cut blade bends easily — follows surface of pan.

★ Blade is rigid as board when lifted up.

★ Easy to demonstrate on counter.

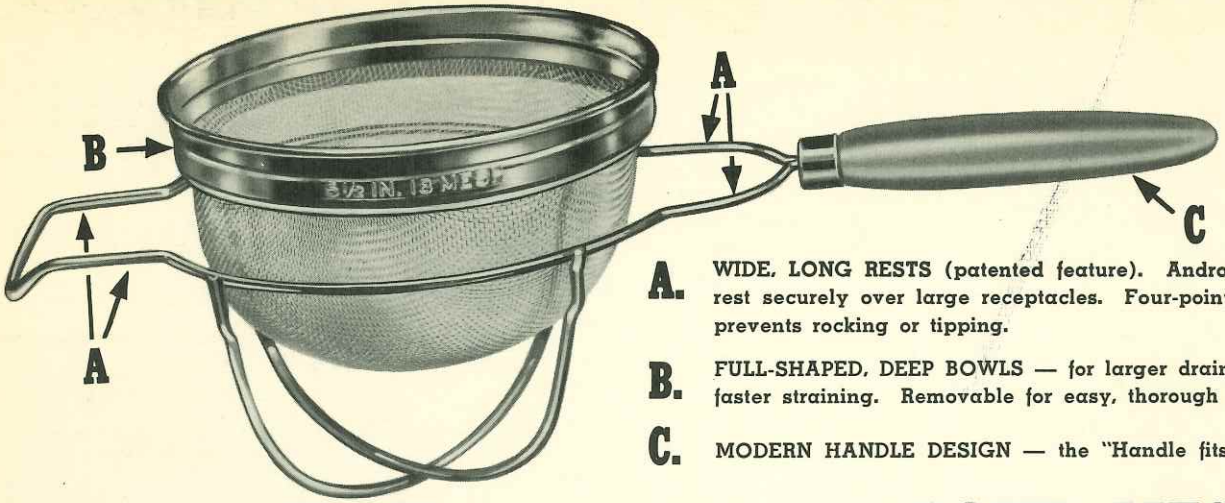
Androck Food Strainers ★ A Complete Line



A. WIDE, LONG RESTS (patented feature). Androck Strainers rest securely over large receptacles. Four-point suspension prevents rocking or tipping.

B. FULL-SHAPED, DEEP BOWLS — for larger draining surface, faster straining. Removable for easy, thorough cleaning.

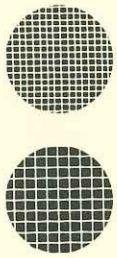
C. MODERN HANDLE DESIGN — the "Handle fits the Hand".

HOUSEWIVES NEED FOOD STRAINERS OF FOUR MESHES

"Mesh" is the term applied to wire cloth to define its straining quality. The number used to identify mesh designates the number of holes to the inch. For example, "12 mesh" means that there are 12 holes to the lineal inch. In other words, there are 144 holes to the square inch.

Since each mesh has its own distinct use in today's kitchen, the housewife NEEDS strainers of the four meshes illustrated here for convenient preparation and serving of food. Androck straining cloth is designed for greater strength, longer life, faster straining, and easier cleansing.

←30 MESH--FINE

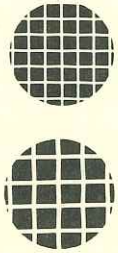


18 MESH--MEDIUM→

for straining tea, coffee, and foods for tiny infants —oatmeal gruel, barley jelly, rice jelly, bananas, boiled milk (to remove skim) and egg yolk. "Twilled" strainer cloth design adds to attractive appearance.

for straining soups, thin gravies, and cereals; also for straining cereals, apple sauce, prune pulp, vegetables, etc., for infants who are just beginning to take solid food.

←12 MESH--COARSE



8 MESH-EXTRA COARSE→

for straining thick gravies and purees—for washing small vegetables and fruits such as beans, peas, berries, prunes, raisins, etc. — and for straining cereals and vegetables in the diet for older babies.

for straining juice from oranges, lemons, limes, pineapples, grapefruit, etc.—to break food into lumps for up to year-old babies — cooked potatoes, rice, carrots, peas, beans, onions, celery, asparagus, etc.

PATENT OFFICE
DEC - 2 1942

ANDROCK FOOD PRESS

★ SAVES TIME, SAVES FOOD—Speeds straining and ricing operations—eliminates paring.

★ NEW CONVENIENCE—Rests securely, even on large size utensils. Avoids staining of fingers. Easy to use. Easy to clean.

★ RETAINS FLAVOR AND VITAMINS—ordinarily lost through old-fashioned methods of food preparation.

★ LONG LIFE CONSTRUCTION—Sturdy, reliable, simple, easy-working mechanism—nothing to get out of order or break.

★ RED OR GREEN HANDLES—Order No. 326 G (Jade Green); No. 326 R (Cardinal Red). Be sure to specify color desired.

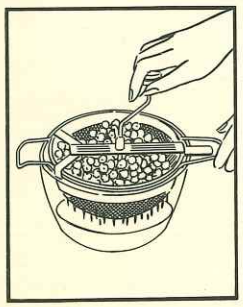
★ PACKED—One half-dozen of one color handle to shipping carton. Weight 6 lbs. per carton.



STRAINING

Speed-up straining of apple sauce, jellies . . . tomato juice (for cocktails) . . . vegetables for infant feeding . . . separation of whites and yolks of eggs when making angel food cake. Mashes food through strainer seven times faster than with spoon.

. . RICING . .

Practically eliminates paring of fruits and vegetables. Thoroughly wash, quarter and cook apples, potatoes, carrots, etc. Merely roll through Food Mill. Makes mashed potatoes fluffy, with new delightful flavor. Retains healthful food vitamins. Ends waste of peeling. No stained fingers.

ANOTHER ANDROCK PRODUCT

1. Eight "Lifetime" Stainless Steel Wings — mounted on heavy Stainless Steel Wire Frame. Bright Cobalt Nickel finished Frame and Gears.
2. FIXED RACE for Ball Bearings — Bearings roll in specially-designed "race"—never come into contact with shaft—resulting in longer life, effortless, free-running operation.
3. High-Speed Center Drive Gear — always in mesh — deeply drawn "slotted" teeth operate evenly, avoid slippage—no jagged edges to catch on clothing.
4. Genuine "jewel-like" Catalin handles — modern fluted design for "non-skid", comfortable grip.
5. "Spade" handle and frame, ribbed and reinforced for sturdy, rigid construction.
6. Enclosed pinion gears—bronze bearings—accurately cut teeth for life-long mesh and quiet operation.
7. "Slabbed" Shaft—not round—forced into rectangular hub of drive gear for positive contact—no slippage.
